

Explore TV

R/T: 100 x 5'

YOP: 2016

Production Company: Gurus Production

Episodic Breakdown (Episodes 1 – 50)*Episode 1

With winds up to 50 kilometres per hour, experts from around the world say Western Australia is a kite surfing paradise.

Episode 2

Kayak, snorkel and boat cruise to Seal and Penguin Islands off the coast of Western Australia for a relaxing day and view sea lions, pelicans, penguins, dolphins and other wildlife.

Episode 3

The coastline that comes to life is in Rockingham, Western Australia. Cruise above the beautiful protected bays and skydive onto the white sands of Rockingham or jetpack the beautiful beaches.

Episode 4

If you love music, you will love the jam-packed 3-day family-friendly Fairbridge Festival near Pinjarra in Western Australia. This global festival represents sublime sounds from all over the world as well as a festival just for the kids.

Episode 5

Swim with the majestic whale sharks on Ningaloo Reef and snorkel the perfect reef on Turquoise Bay. This bay on Australia's Coral Coast is the most incredible snorkel spot - just a short swim off the shore and you will be left with beautiful memories.

Episode 6

Set in the relaxing Doonbeg on the picturesque Irish coast, the Trump International Golf Links and Hotel is one of the best golf courses in the World and embraces the beautiful buildings, amazing resort and unbelievable coastline of Ireland.

Episode 7

Heading through Golden in Canada, catch a chairlift to the start line to enjoy the rush of Downhill Mountain biking in the summer and get up close and personal with the majestic grizzly bears at the Kicking Horse Grizzly Bear Refuge.

Episode 8

The Cliffs of Moher on the Wild Atlantic Way in Ireland is one of nature's true wonders. You can walk or catch a ferry to view this 8-kilometre stretch of breathtaking cliffs, which are truly a sight to behold.

Episode 9

Explore the Killary Harbour in Leenane, situated northwest of Ireland - this extraordinary scenery will leave you breathless. Travel 20 minutes and challenge yourself to a rope course 15-20 meters above the ground, zip line at fast speed, bridge swing or do the bog walk at Delphi Adventure Resort.

Episode 10

300 kilometres of coast on Jeju Island is the perfect spot to begin your South Korean adventure. Paddle the southern side at your pace and explore the amazing geological structure of the 2km underground Manjang cave.

Episode 11

Rockingham Beach in Western Australia offers exciting up-close and personal diving with bottlenose dolphins. This unbelievable experience is like no other and will send your senses into overdrive.

Episode 12

Get immersed into the Tai Kwon Do culture in South Korea and get ready to be astounded at how incredible the human body can be. In the heart of Seoul have some fun at the largest combined leisure theme park, The Woongjin Playdoci, which even has a huge ski park!

Episode 13

Visit Rottnest Island by ferry from Perth, Australia – be amazed by the crystal clear blue-green waters, and relax in the beautiful lagoons and white sandy beaches. While you are in Perth, try the super fast jet boats off Fremantle City – perfect for those seeking an adrenalin rush.

Episode 14

Lee steps aboard a Tiger Moth and soars through the skies of Perth. Taking off in the Tiger Moth, you do not have a roof blocking your view; instead you get to experience the skies of Perth in an open cockpit, 3000 metres above the ocean.

Episode 15

Pack up and head to Gin Gin in Western Australia for something a little unexpected. Enjoy world-class scientific research mixed with fun and games at the Discovery Centre and defy gravity on the Leaning Tower of Gin Gin.

Episode 16

The Wild Atlantic Way gives travellers so many memorable experiences and the Dingle Peninsula is no exception. There's no other landscape in Western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as here and getting to see them is so easy.

Episode 17

One incredibly beautiful town in Ireland you just have to visit is Dingle. Situated on the edge of lush green rolling pastures with a backdrop of spectacular mountains, it's as pretty as a picture.

Episode 18

Often called the Real Emerald of Ireland, one of its true gems - not just for its stunning architecture but also as much for its botanic setting - is Kylemore Abbey.

Episode 19

Jeonju is a modern industrialised city with a wonderfully rich history that is as alive today as it was over 1000 years ago. The Jeonju Hanok Village in the heart of this city is a must-see destination for any visitor to Korea.

Episode 20

With so many great things to see and do in Seoul, go somewhere where art really rules and head to Samcheong-dong. Full of brilliant restaurants, coffee and fashion shops – you just have to check it out.

Episode 21

There was a time in Bangkok when boats were the main mode of transport for everyone, even royalty. It was the royal barges that rule these waters and you can relive their grandeur with a visit to a museum entirely dedicated to these royal vessels.

Episode 22

Just east of downtown Seoul, Gwangjang Market is Korea's oldest remaining daily market offering both locals and foreign tourists the quintessential Seoul experience.

Episode 23

Bangkok is one of the world's biggest and most vibrant cities and seamlessly melds the old with the new. Bangkok draws a constant stream of visitors eager to enjoy the huge amount of cheap, delicious food in this city.

Episode 24

Baltimore - a village just off the Wild Atlantic Way, a spectacular sight and very much worth a side visit. It's many protected coves. Kim visits Baltimore is to check out a very special lake – Lough Hyne.

Episode 25

When it comes to landscape, South Korea's is varied and very interesting. From volcanic regions to pristine coast and dramatic mountain ranges, your eye is always stimulated especially at the Mount Jirisan Mountains.

Episode 26

Enjoy a good road trip in Western Australia and watch as our roads take us to amazing places. Full of colour, full of water and it's full of wonder and if you have ever been to Karijini, you'll know exactly what we mean.

Episode 27

Tod goes to the Karijini National Park in search of the adrenalin rush. With climbing, water crossings and abseiling all on the menu, the Red Gorge Tour is absolutely magnificent.

Episode 28

One of the most fabulous experiences you could ever have here in Thailand is spending time exploring the coastline and walking the magnificent beaches - it's World famous for it. Trevor and Caty indulge in the luxury while hopping between islands on the Andaman Sea in Thailand.

Episode 29

Nestled at the foot of the Khao Luang Mountain Range in Thailand's southwest is Baan Kiriwong, which translated means 'The Village Surrounded by Mountains'. It's just an hour's flight from Bangkok but a world away from its hustle and bustle.

Episode 30

World-class rock climbing can be had in Railay, in southern Thailand. A stunning place with limestone cliffs, pure white sand and emerald green water.

Episode 31

If you're in Bangkok on one special day in November, this city and the rest of Thailand turns into a magical fairyland thanks to a mystical festival of light known as the Loi Krathong. One of the most picturesque events you're ever likely to see.

Episode 32

One of the greatest pleasures you'll enjoy when holidaying in Thailand is their cuisine, it's simply unique and scrumptious. In this episode, why not learn to cook Thai food yourself?

Episode 33

Thailand is a nation of deeply spiritual people, predominately of Buddhist faith. Buddhism first came to Thailand about 2000 years ago and there are some amazing temples across the country that are well worth seeing.

Episode 34

The beautiful landscape of our West Australian bush is seen and felt remarkably by indigenous Australians and the land belongs to them and they belong to the land. Journey with Tod as he learns about their traditional land.

Episode 35

Join Tod as he explores the Millstream Chichester National Park, a region that is the traditional homeland of the Yindjibarndi people. Visit the old homestead, a former cattle station, which remains the hub of Millstream as a visitors centre today.

Episode 36

Here's a place you may not have heard of and it is most definitely worth exploring. Tucked behind Kalamunda in the Perth Hills is the Bickley Wine Trail and at starting point today there's not a grape in sight.

Episode 37

The landscape is ancient and while the traditional owners have been here for thousands of years, European settlement has been relatively recent with some of the earliest contact happening right here off the coast of Dampier.

Episode 38

Fly to a remote location in British Columbia, Canada, for an amazing heli hiking experience in the rugged mountains. Heli-hiking adds a new dimension to trekking, allowing you to explore beyond the local area.

Episode 39

When in Canada, one must-do is to explore the stunning wilderness around the town of Waterton in the province of Alberta, just a stone's throw from the border with the US state of Montana.

Episode 40

The Water Lake National Park has so many natural features, including all sorts of wildlife and the Cameron Waterfall.

Episode 41

Next stop on Explore TV's trip to Canada is the Yukon Territory. Starting this leg of our journey in Whitehorse, the hub of the Yukon. The town has lovely historic feel about it and is now the capital of the Yukon.

Episode 42

Go remote in Yukon, Canada, and take a boat to the Tagish Wilderness Lodge, where you can try a hand at fishing and smoking your trout.

Episode 43

One way to experience the wildlife of the north is to take a safari tour through the Yukon Wildlife Preserve. A terrific opportunity to take a stroll around the huge enclosures that showcase some of the unique wildlife, often only found in the Yukon and northern Territories.

Episode 44

When we hear the words Port Hedland, we mainly associate it with iron ore, and a lot of it! Even though there are industry tours that circumnavigate the entire port, there's so much more to it than just mining.

Episode 45

Chrissy takes the next big thing in South West travel -- a floatplane to stunning Geographe Bay to dive one of the world's great shipwrecks, the HMAS Swan.

Episode 46

In the hills east of Perth is a very special place - Kalamunda. The Noongar translation is 'home in the forest'. The peace and quiet of life up here draws people to the hills lifestyle but this is one place that is not short of things to do.

Episode 47

Visitors to Walpole can experience the Valley of the Giants and Tree Top Walk, the Ancient Empire and the beautiful scenery and attractions of the Walpole/Nornalup National Park.

Episode 48

More than 70 per cent of Western Australia is coastline and the best way to see it is from beneath the waves so to come and discover one of Rottnest Island's most unique dive sites.

Episode 49

Check out the amazing marine life over the crystal clear Indian Ocean around Rottnest Island off the coast of Western Australia. Diverse and bright and colourful, this dive will take your breath away.

Episode 50

Head down Southwest into Blackwood Valley and takes up the challenge to explore this amazing part of our state on two wheels with West Coast Trail Bike Safaris his guide for the day.